

Department of English

Academic Session 2017 - 2018

Innovations and Best Practices of the Department

The Department of English has been keen in reviving its policies every year so as to suit the needs of the evolving student community. Its transition into the status of Core Department has made the revision even more essential. The faculty of the department after a careful consideration of the present scenario chalked out a variety of innovative and productive practices that has brought a major change in the English language use among the students. Some snippets follow.

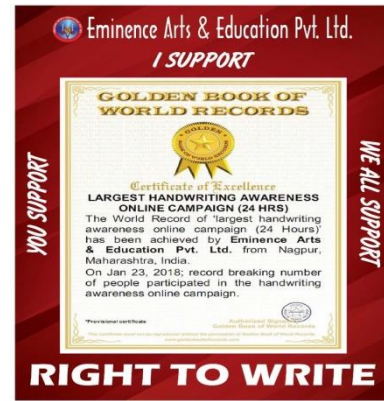

Mrs Gayatri Vatsalayan- An NGO (Proposed for MoU)

Handwriting Awareness Drive 2018 - Handwriting Awareness Drive 2018 –
Global Event organised on 23/1/2018 Largest Online Campaign World Record Award

Principal Dr Sharad Sambare, Dr Amol Raut Coordinator- Right to Write Event along with participants

World Record - Event Certificate

Elocution Competition September 6, 2017 (Jointly organized)

What I can do for cleanliness - Swachahta Pakwada Sept. 1-15, 2017

(C) L-R) Dr Ambatkar, Prof Kuchankar(Judges) Principal Dr Sambarer, Dr Mamta Wagh (Judge)Dr K G Meshram (Adviser)
(S) L-R) Dr Amol Raut Event Coordinator, Dr Lalta Punnya (NSS Cordinator), Winners, Dr Kumud MESHram, Dr Prakash Sonak (Adviser)
& Dr Rawlekar (HoD Marathi)

Bridge Courses

The department has discussed with the RTMNU, Department of English & Foreign Languages for Collaboration to hold Short Term Course/ Workshop for students in terms of LSRW. The final reply is awaited.

Reading English Newspaper Activity

The newspaper is a great and cost-effective instructional tool. Newspapers can be used as classroom activities to help improve students' reading and writing skills. A newspaper provides students with the opportunity to enhance their cognitive skills and see how reading and writing are interconnected. The newspaper text is expected, which can be a great model for student writing. Students create their own activities to practice their reading and writing skills, while collaborating with classmates to achieve a common goal. The activity is designed recently to inculcate LSRW skills among students.