The Doctor's Word

- R. K. Narayan

The present story proves the fact that faith is the great healer. There are times when a doctor's word can turn out to be a better dose than medicine itself.

Gopal, Dr. Raman's friend, falls critically ill. His condition deteriorates by the day. By the time Dr. Raman comes to know of it, it looks as if it is too late. But a true doctor that he is, Dr. Raman, tries all the tricks in his bag. He even goes to the extent of telling Gopal that he

Questions No :- 1

How did aunt Polly frustrate Tom Sawyer's plan ?

Answer :-

On that Monday morning, Tom invented many excuses to stay away from school. First he thought that he could pretend to have pain in the stomach. He encouraged the symptoms of stomach pain but they soon grew weak. Then he discovered that one of his upper front teeth was loose and so he pretended that he had tooth-ache. But he realised that his aunt would pull it out causing him pain. Finally he pretended that he had pain in his toe. When his aunt exposed his tricks, he said that he had pain in his loose tooth. In this way aunt Polly frustrated with Tom Sawyer's Plan.

Questions No 2 :-

Sketch the character of Tom Sawyer.

Answer :-

Tom Sawyer is a mischievous boy with an active imagination who spends most of the novel getting himself, and often his friends, into and out of trouble. Despite his mischief, Tom has a good heart and a strong moral conscience. As the novel progresses, he begins to take more seriously the responsibilities of his role as a leader among his school fellows. He is no longer a disobedient character undermining the adult order, but a defender of respectability and responsibility. In the end, growing up for Tom means embracing social customs and sacrificing the freedoms of childhood.

Questions No 3 :-

How did Tom feel on a Monday morning?
why

Answer :-

Every Monday morning Tom Sawyer felt miserable because he hated to go to school. He thought that school was like a prison. He had no freedom there. So he invented various excuses to stay away from school. But his excuses did not often succeed. His aunt, Polly, foiled these attempts.

monday morning because it began another week's slow suttening in school.

Questions No 5:-

How did Aunt Polly behave with Tom?

Answer :-

Tom said that he had terrible pain in his ~~toe~~ tooth. Aunt Polly knew that Tom was pretending to be ill from he wanted to stay away from school. Now she ordered him to stop his pretensions and groanings. When he saw that his trick did not work, he started complaining of terrible pain in his loose tooth. Aunt Polly asked Mary to bring the dental instruments, a silk thread and pair of burning coals. Aunt Polly tied one end of the silk thread to Tom's tooth with a loop and tied the another end to the bedpost. Then she seized the pair of burning coals and suddenly thrust it almost into the boy's face. The tooth hung dangling by the bedpost now. Aunt Polly asked Tom to go to school as his painful tooth was
