About Orange City Nagpur

Nagpur is a major commercial and political centre of the Vidarbha Region of Maharashtra. The city has been adjudged the 20th cleanest city in India and the top mover in the western zone as per Swachh Sarvekshan 2016. It is famous for Nagpur oranges and is sometimes known as the Orange City for being a major trade centre of oranges cultivated in the region. The city was founded in 1703 by the Gond King Bakht Buland Shah of Deogarh and later became a part of the Maratha Empire under the royal Bhonsale dynasty. Monsoon season starts from the month of June. Temperature falls down to a comfortable level in the month of June. The weather remains ideal for exploring the city of Nagpur and enjoying the various attractions. The largest dome shape monument, Deeksha Bhoomi, is a famous place of Buddhist movement. Other famous temples in Nagpur are Tekdi Ganesh Mandir, Swaminarayan Temple,

About Cluster of Colleges:

Principal Arunrao Kalode Mahavidyalaya

The college, established in 1984, is run by Saibaba Lokseva Sanstha. The Sanstha also runs schools:- Primary, Middle & High School at Khambha, Nagpur. The senior college has undergraduate courses in Arts and Commerce Faculty. It provides opportunities to the students of poor socio-economic background to pursue education. In 2002-2003 it was renamed in the memory of Late Principal Arunrao Kalode. The institution runs under the visionary leaders, Shri. Kishor Bhaou Umathe as Secretary and Shri. Omkar P. Umathe as President, under their able guidance. The college aims to march ahead in achieving its objective. The institution is well-equipped with a rich library, computer lab having internet facility, Language Lab, Smart class-rooms, gym, playground etc. Both the vision and mission of the institution aim ensuring the physical, mental, moral and intellectual development of all the students. The teachers and students work hard to achieve the mission of the institution. In March 2019, NAAC Peer Team visited the college and accredited it with 'B++'.

Dr. M. K. Umathe College

The institution runs by Satimata Shikshan Sanstha. The College was established in 1983. The college runs Under Graduate programmes in Arts & Commerce along with PG Courses in Hindi and Economics. The college is recognized under 2(f) & 12(b) of the UGC and is affiliated to Rashtrasant Tukadoji Maharaj Nagpur University, Nagpur. Yashoda Girls' Arts & Commerce College

The College was founded by Purushottam Kharapde Health & Education Society, Nagpur on August 1, 1992. The College runs undergraduate courses in Arts & Commerce. The college also runs Junior College for girls in Arts faculty. The vision of the Secretary, The institution is accredited by NAAC with 'B++' in 2017.

Women's College of Arts & Commerce

The College was established by Vaidarbhya Mahila Sanstha by Dr. Prabhatai Sapkal in 1984. The College runs Commerce Stream under UG and PG level and also BA under UG level. Recently the college has been accredited & awarded B Grade in its 2nd cycle of NAAC.

Mahila Mahavidyalaya

The institution runs by Stree Shikshan Prasarak Mandal. The College was established in 1971. The College began its journey of imparting education to lesser privileged women in an area, where education to girls of weaker sections, was a far reaching dream. The institution has Junior College offering Arts, Commerce and Science stream. The Senior College offers undergraduate programme in Arts, 5 PG programs in English, Marathi, Political Science, Home Economics and Economics, B. Tech (Cosmetic Technology) and is also a Research Centre for pursuing Ph. D in English and Home Economics. The college has been accredited with 'A Grade' by NAAC, Bangalore.

About the Seminar :

The National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC) has brought you in new spirit into its process of assessment and accreditation with the revised effective process effective from July 2017 making it more robust, objective, transparent, scalable and technology enabled. The revised process also reduces the duration of accreditation process.

Some of the redeeming features of revised NAAC Assessment & Accreditation Framework are:

- Data based quantitative indicator evaluation with increased objectivity and transparency;
- Extensive use of ICT confirming scalability and robustness;
- Simplification of process by reduction in number of questions, size of report, visit days etc.;
- Boosting bench marking as quality improve ment tool;
- Providing appropriate differences in the metrics, weight ages and benchmarks to universities, autonomous colleges and affiliated/constituent colleges; and
- Revising several metrics to bring in enhanced participation of students and alumni in the assessment process.

Objective of the Seminar:

The seminar is an awareness program on quality systems in higher education focusing on colleges and taking into account the revised NAAC framework for Assessment and Accreditation. The objectives of the seminar are:

- To disseminate the revised NAAC Accreditation and Assessment Framework among the decision makers of the colleges.
- To build enabling capacity among the colleges for improving the quality in higher education.
- To promote Quality culture among higher educational institutions by identifying measurement metrics, benchmarking and developing processes for attaining the intended outcomes aiming for securing NAAC Accreditation.
