One day Virtual National Seminar Report

YGC

Date : ..05/01/2025...

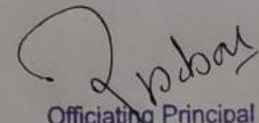

A One day Virtual National Seminar titled "The Concept of Humanity and the Message of Peace in Urdu Literature" was organized by Yashoda Girls' Arts and Commerce College, Sneh Nagar, Nagpur on Saturday, January 4, 2025. The seminar was inaugurated by the Chief Guest Hon. Dr Khwaja Mohammad Ekramuddin, Professor, Centre for Indian Languages, Jawaharlal Nehru University, New Delhi. The National song 'Sare Jaha Se achha' was played immediately. In his inaugural speech, he urged, today, that there is a need to conduct such seminars again and again on the basis of which man is moving away from man. He further said that today the world needs peace and we all should become Peace Ambassadors, so that the tense environment can be made peaceful.

The program was organized by Zarina Salim, Head, Department of Urdu. She briefed on Urdu department and further said that Urdu language is not only a sweet language, but the language has also played an important role in the development of civilization of India. There is need to be pointed out. The Principal of the college, Dr. Sharad Sambare, gave introductory remarks and about the college as well.

Hon. Dr. Kaleem Zia, Former, Chairman, BoS, Urdu, University of Mumbai, said that, the Beauty of India is where people of different religions live in harmony with each other, we can understand this by an example, not only in the writings of ancient poets and writers but, also in the humanism and message of contemporary writers and poets and also they found in the topics of peace. Dr. Kaleem Zia said that the message of philanthropy and peace is very much needed for the vision of a Great India.

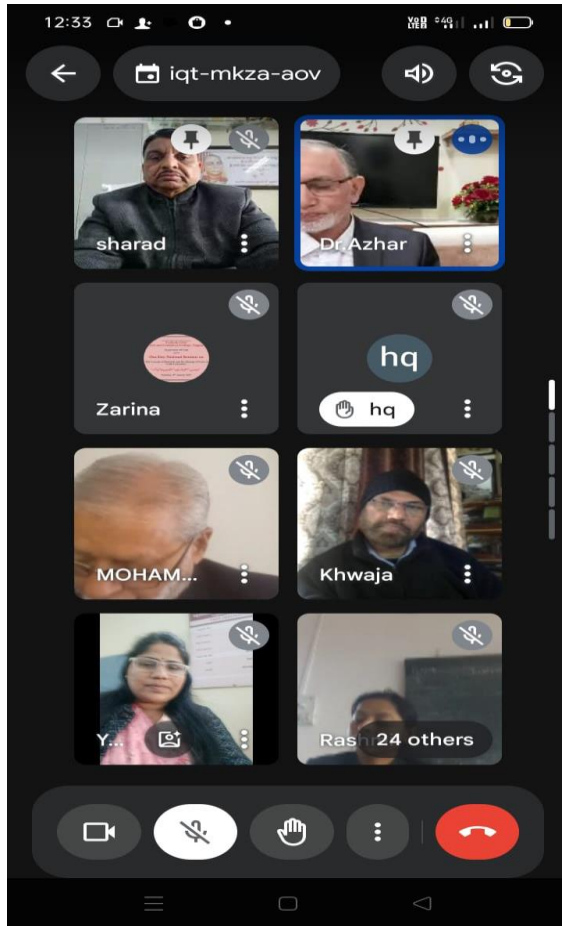

Hon. Dr. Bibi Raza, Department of the Urdu, Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad. She further said that, we need to rise above Caste, Community, Race, etc. and regional bias. We should talk about mutual unity and love. She said that the way secularism is embedded in the culture of India, it needs to be propagated.

Hon. Dr. Azhar Hayat, Former, Chairman, BoS, Urdu, RTM Nagpur University; Nagpur said that, Now-a-days, there is a strong need for mutual love and brotherhood, and Urdu language can promote this work very well. He emphasized that like before, poets and writers have done this work very well. There is a need to continue this process. Among research papers presented were, Dr. Azhar Abrar, Siraj Anwar Khan, Dr. Abid Hussain, Bibi Raza Khatoon, Gul Fashan Anjum, Uzma Yazdani, Anup Singh and others.
